

Eighteenth Annual Bollinger/Rosado Teaching and Learning Effectiveness Symposium.

Theme

Increasing the Quality of Student Learning Through Improved Teaching Methods

Table of Contents

Section A: To Infinity and Beyond: An Empirical Analysis of Communication Immediacy Among ERAU Online Learners by: Lisa T. Fall, Ph.D., ERAU Worldwide; Stephanie Kelly, University of Tennessee; and Lt. Col. Michael Angle, University of Tennessee.

Section B: Teaching Aviation Labor Relations Using Active Learning: A Full Course Simulation by Lee F. Hays, D.B.A., ERAU Daytona Beach.

Section C: A Concept Diagram for Transient Circuit Analysis Instruction by Thomas Yang, Ph.D., ERAU Daytona Beach.

Section D: All I Ever Needed to Know About Economics, I Found at the Bottom of a Wine Glass! by Kelly Whealan George, ERAU Worldwide.

This symposium is dedicated to Dr. Art Rosado and Mr. John Bollinger who served Embry-Riddle and their country with pride and distinction. These two gentlemen set the standard for excellence in teaching at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University Worldwide. By a unanimous vote of the faculty, this symposium is named in their honor.